What Is Early College?

"Early college" means a secondary school that provides only a curriculum that is designed in a manner that requires each student to enroll in and complete secondary and postsecondary courses while enrolled in the four years of high school such that, upon successful completion of the curriculum, the student who successfully completes the curriculum will have completed either the requirements of a high school diploma and an associate's degree or other postsecondary credential or at least sixty credits toward the completion of a postsecondary credential. The curriculum must be designed to be completed within four years.

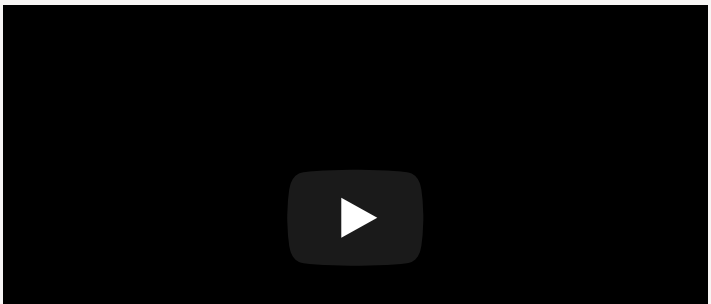
Sneak A Peek into Our School



Early College of Arvada earned the "early college" designation in 2009. We adopted the "We Can and We Will" motto as it represents our staff enabling our students to be successful members of society and achieve their highest academic goals. It also reflects our students' commitment to acknowledging not only that they CAN achieve their goals and dreams but that they WILL achieve those goals and dreams.
